living our tradition | continuing the excellence

Amazing accomplishments have been achieved by the young women who have graced the halls of SUA during the past 150 years. Academic milestones have been set; fine art masterpieces created; athletic records broken. Today's students will continue the SUA tradition of educational and personal excellence...always striving to be their best.

We are proud of the diversity of our student body. Together, we embrace a common thread – the values and traditions that are SUA. SUA is committed to the mission set forth over a century ago by the Ursuline Sisters.

The Commitment to Values Campaign will serve a new generation of young women who will be influenced by academic excellence, the power of faith, and strong leadership that are all hallmarks of a St. Ursula education. With your pledge, tuition assistance and scholarship programs will continue to support families and our students will benefit from state-of-the-art renovations that keep pace with new learning strategies and technologies.

serving through leadership | a message for our friends

For over 150 years, St. Ursula Academy has helped create an environment for young women which fosters spirituality, love of learning and excellence. This has been reinforced and supported through the years by the strategic efforts of our faculty and staff, and most importantly, by the generosity of our alumnae, our parents and our community.

Since beginning this campaign in 2008, we have raised over $4 million. Achieving our goal of $5 million will become a reality in 2010 and a proud moment in St. Ursula history. Please thoughtfully consider your part in helping us to reach our goal.

forecasting the future | the need for renovation

Tomorrow's technology today is our call to action to renovate our Business and Media Center. Our students need the most current tools to face college and a future that depends upon technology. Our plan is to provide a wireless computer room with flexible data capabilities; corporate training tables; laptops; SmartBoards; high-definition televisions; graphic art stations; and a Film and Media Room for film-editing and sound booth production.

From theatre to dance to the fine and graphic arts, SUA offers the finest materials and instruction to enhance the artistic experience and repertoire of the SUA student. Currently, our Art Studio lacks the space that is conducive to creativity. We are planning a total Art Studio makeover with new lighting, more storage, new teacher stations and studio desks, spacious lab tables, and display cases. Upon completion, we will introduce more specialized fine, graphic, and ceramic art classes, all within a fresh and inspiring environment.

SCHOLARSHIP FACTS

4-year tuition costs $36,000 per student

43% of incoming freshmen need tuition assistance

embracing opportunities | an investment in scholarships

In 2008, SUA proudly awarded $850,000 in tuition assistance to over 60% of our students. Through the generous contributions from alumnae, friends and families, young women were given the life-changing opportunity to attend SUA — a gift that will provide them with the knowledge, inspiration, and self confidence for a lifetime.

It's a fact...fewer families are able to afford the rising cost of tuition at parochial schools. National and local demographics show that fewer students are graduating from Catholic elementary schools.

Scholarship and tuition assistance programs help make SUA a reality for many young women. We believe that an education at SUA should be possible for deserving young women who seek the values taught by the Ursuline order.
